Services Limited During Holidays .................................................................3
Computing facilities at UF Computing & Networking Services will operate with limited services on Veteran's Day, Tuesday, November 11, 2003, and on the Thanksgiving Day holidays, Thursday and Friday, November 27-28, 2003. "Limited services" means CNS computers will be operational, but tape mounting and output filing will be at the operator's discretion. CIRCA administrative offices will be closed for these holidays, but some labs will remain open. See the hours posted on lab doors.

For information about UNF's computing lab schedule, please see their calendar at http://www.unf.edu/compserv/helpdesk/calendar.htm.
