Town Hall Meeting Recognizes Award Winners, Service Pins ...........................................3
Another Office of Information Technology (OIT) Town Hall Meeting took place on September 26, 2003, at the Keene Faculty Center in Dauer Hall. This was the latest in a series of meetings for OIT staff designed to help them catch up with each other and celebrate their accomplishments.

One of the major focuses of the afternoon was the recognition of the 2002-2003 OIT Superior Accomplishment Award recipients. This program recognizes staff members who contribute outstanding and meritorious service, efficiency and/or economy, or to the quality of life provided to students and employees. This award represents recognition by one's peers, which is the highest point of achievement. The winners of the OIT Superior Accomplishment Award are:

Academic Technology

- William Alexander
- Ann Fosser
- Jameson Johnston

Computing & Networking Services

- James Moore
- Nancy Watson
- Jordan Wiens

Telecommunications

- Mary Keramidas
- Ray Warner
CNS Associate Director Andy Olivenbaum receives his 30 year pin from Tim Fitzpatrick, CNS Director.

A number of people were also awarded service pins for their years of service to the university:

Bill Carr, CNS Operations, 20 years
Fran McDonell, CIRCA, 30 years
Andy Olivenbaum, CNS associate director, 30 years
Jack Schudel, CNS, 30 years
Steve Ware, CNS CICS, 20 years

Vice Provost for Information Technology Chuck Frazier, CNS Director Tim Fitzpatrick, Pat Dovell (for AT Director Fedro Zazueto), and UF Bridges Director Mike Conlon took the time to let everybody know how proud they are of the award winners, and of everyone who works so hard to get the job done. "These awards could not possibly recognize everyone who contributes to the success of these teams," said Frazier.
