UF IT Resources Web Page Available

If you're looking for a one-stop listing of Information Technology (IT) Resources available at UF, look no further. The www.cns.ufl.edu/resources [http://www.cns.ufl.edu/resources] Webpage was developed as a handout for the IT Orientation hosted several times each year by the IT Training Committee. In order to share the information with a wider audience, they decided to publish this extensive cross-referenced list online as well.

According to Allan Pither, CNS project development manager, "We wanted to give the IT community at UF one-stop shopping for information about technology on campus. This way, the material is searchable and as up-to-date as possible."

If you have comments, suggestions, additions or happen to notice out-of-date links, please contact Pither at pither@ufl.edu [mailto:pither@ufl.edu] or call (352) 392-2061.
