UF Incident Response Team Changes
E-mail Address to UFIRT

The University of Florida Incident Response Team, previously known as the Network Incident Response Team, has changed its name and its e-mail address. The e-mail address has been changed from netirt@ufl.edu [mailto:netirt@ufl.edu] to ufirt@ufl.edu [mailto:ufirt@ufl.edu].

The new name was chosen to more accurately reflect the team's role and its new organization, the UF IT Security Team, which is now separate from Network Services. The team provides incident response service to all of campus, not just the network.

The old e-mail address, netirt@ufl.edu [mailto:netirt@ufl.edu], will continue to be monitored. Abuse@ufl.edu [mailto:abuse@ufl.edu] continues to be the primary e-mail address to which security complaint and concerns should be sent. General inquiries to the UF IT Security Team can be sent to security@ufl.edu [mailto:security@ufl.edu].
