Grab a Piece of Cake for NERDC's 25th! .................................................................3
Where were you back then? NERDC is celebrating its 25th birthday. In this 1982 photo, IBM Field Engineering Representative for NERDC, Neil Chapin, left, prepares the 3203 printers for production as (former) Operator Robert Roby bursts output from the 1403 printer. For more information about NERDC's beginnings, dating back to 1952, check out the NERDC History Page at http://www.cns.ufl.edu/info-services/history/.
