UF Software Copyright Policy & Materials on the Web

It's online! The University of Florida Software Copyright Policy, Guidelines and Materials package is available on the World-Wide Web at the URL:

http://pirate.ifas.ufl.edu/

Training materials include an Anti-Piracy Poster -- a crossed-out illustration of a pirate holding a floppy disk with illegally-copied software. This poster can be downloaded for further distribution.

The Web package also contains:

- UF's Policy on software copyright
- A guide to compliance with the policy for individuals and departments

Supporting materials include:

- The text of the Florida Computer Crimes Act
- Educational materials for departments' use to enhance the awareness of their faculty, staff and students regarding software copyright compliance
- A log sheet that can be downloaded, duplicated and distributed to document software installed on personal computers or workstations

The package is also accessible from the UF Home Page at:

http://www.ufl.edu/, via the link, Computing and Networking at UF.
